To whom it may concern,

Anne Kaarid and I met in 2012 when I hired her for a position in my Massage Therapy clinic. Anne immediately became a part of our team with her warm and caring nature. We quickly became friends and have kept in touch ever since.

Anne has a very calm, gentle and nurturing personality. She was always very well received in the clinic and was very thorough with her assessments and treatments while practicing Myomassology. Anne is well organized, punctual, extremely trustworthy and reliable. Anne is very committed to her community, often volunteering for events or ready to lend a helping hand whenever required.

Recently I have witnessed Anne embracing a new chapter in her life. She has whole heartedly taken on this new challenge of returning to school and furthering her education. It has been very inspiring to watch her overcome challenges of uprooting and moving to a new city and meeting and building a new community around her.

Anne is an intelligent and determined individual. She has my full support in her future endeavors and I would be happy to provide more evidence of her qualifications if necessary.

Kind Regards,

Angie Taylor RMT
